

Sweet Temptation

Lillix

I can't even put into words how much I love this song and the album it's on. If you the music video, you'll see that Tasha-Ray doesn't play any chords during the verses, but I the bassline to come up with the chords I thought sounded best for those parts. Enjoy! ^^;

Em

When you're waking in the morning

G

What do you hear? What do you hear?

Em

When you're looking in the mirror

G

Who do you fear? Who do you fear?

C

D

C

D

Em

Falling behind inside

Em

When you listen to their echo

G

Who do you hear? Who do you hear?

Em

When you're playing in their playground

G

What do you fear? What do you fear?

C
