

Downhill

Lincoln

[Verse 1]

but that's just something people say F
when they're on their last leg and Am they need someone to say something to help them cope Bb F or someone to say something hopeful Am I hope you're ok F
but that's just something people say Am and if I meant every word that I ever said Bb you would probably question the life I have led F you'd probably think I'm an evil broken person Bb C and you would be right C

[Chorus 1]

because I went downhill at such steep incline F that my rearview mirror showed me only the sky Am and I laughed about it all night Bb Bbm and I said "hey man, isn't it poetic F that the sky is what we leave behind?" Am cause I was born into the world on a silken cloud Bb and I got bored of the world before I hit the ground C

[Verse 2]

and you're the one who taught me to be brave F Bb I've never spent a moment loving anyone but you Am Bb F C and maybe that's just something that people say Bb F but I hope that you know it's the truth Bb F

[Chorus 2]

F
because I went downhill at such steep incline Am
that my rearview mirror showed me only the sky
Bb
and I laughed about it all night

[Verse 3]

F Am
because you were the first one to show me the stars
Bb
and they don't mean much to me
Bb
but I still wonder where you are F Bb
and some nights I still try to find you
Am Bb
relative to constellations
Am Bb
and all your relatives are still on vacation
C
or so I heard from a friend
F C
and does it mean anything
Bb
that you stayed in town?
probably not

[Chorus 3]

F
because I went downhill at such steep incline Am
that my rearview mirror showed me only the sky
Bb
and I laughed about it all night
F
and I said "hey man, isn't it poetic Am
that the sky is what we leave behind?"
Bb
cause I was born into the world on a silken cloud
and I got bored of the world before I hit the ground

[Outro]

F
hey man, isn't it poetic
Am
that the sky is what we leave behind?
Bb
cause I was born into the world on a silken cloud

and I got bored of the world before I hit the ground
