No way...

If life was really a gift

We re we walk around with a smile

Laughing at mistakes we done before

Take it or leave it was just a thought

I m not trying to step on your toes

But please try to be kind to people around

Do you wanna hear your self say?

Why didn t I keep going, or see it coming...?

It s always someone elses fault

Why didn t I hold on to, I let it slip away...?

Theese are the words I never wanna hear myself say.

No way... No way...

There is nothing on my mind

Just live it
Gift always has a purpose
So life should be for living

So i m gonna keep going, and see it coming.
It s never someone elses fault.
I m gonna hold on to it, won t let it slip away.
Theese are the words I wanna hear myself say.
Today...
