Dying Of Another Broken Heart

Lindi Ortega

Capo 2

A

Used to bring carnations and send me poetry

Used to sing me love songs and record them on CD

Ever since you left I feel like love is a disease

I'm dying of another broken heart

There's no amount of morphine that will ever ease my pain

I know it's not a heart attack but it sure feels the same

Even if there were a cure I could not be saved

I'm dying of another broken heart

A7

I'm dying of another broken heart

I don't believe in fairy tales I don't believe in fate

I don't believe I'll ever find my very own soul mate

So take me to the hospital in my terminal state

I'm dying of another broken heart

I should hold a funeral for every love I've lost

Bury pieces of my heart under the winter frost

And in the Spring they'll all be covered in forget-me-nots

I'm dying of another broken heart

I don't believe in romance and I don't believe in fate

I'm dying of another broken heart

I don't believe I'll ever find my very own soul mate
D
So take me to the hospital before it gets too late
E
I'm dying of another broken heart
