

Alright On The Night
Lindisfarne

Alright On The Night by Lindisfarne
>From the album Fog On The Tyne

Tuning:
Standard, EADGBE, with capo on the 5th fret.

Chords:
A7 x02020
A7* x02223

Intro (play twice):
G / / / D / / / C / / / G / / /

Verse:
G D
I can tell what you think by the look on your face
C G
The look on your face is so mean
G D
Can you tell me exactly what
C G
It is about me that s so unclean?

Verse:
I only ever wanted to be your friend
And I never wanted to be your slave
So take me as I appear before you
And come and live with me in a cave.

Chorus:
A7 D
And it ll be al---right
G D
We ll have a drink on a Friday night
A7 D
It ll be oh so good
G D
We ll do everything that I know we should.

G / / / G / / /

Verse:

I can see it all now falling into place
We can leave all our troubles behind
You can tell at a glance if you look in my face
That it s really ripping up my mind.

Chorus:

And it ll be alright
We ll have a drink on a Friday night
It ll be oh so good
We ll do everything that I know we should.

G / / / G / / /

Verse:

So pick up your bags and go to the ragman
Put on your blue jeans
And take off that stupid look on your face
Everything I say I mean.

Chorus:

And it ll be alright
We ll have a drink on a Friday night
It ll be oh so good
We ll do everything that I know we should,
And it ll be alright
We ll have a drink on a Friday night
It ll be oh so good
We ll do everything that I know we should.

A7* / / / D / / / G / / / D / / / (play 4 times)

Repeat chorus to fade.