Little Bird Lisa Hannigan Intro: B, G, B, G, B, G, B, G, в Е Your heart sings like a kettle G в And your words, they boil away like steam. в Е And a lie burns long while the truth bites quick, G в A heart is built for both it seems. в Е You are lonely as a church, G в Despite the queuing out your door. в Е G в I am empty as a promise, no more. F# Е в When the time comes, F# Е в And rights have been read, F#  $\mathbf{E}$ I think of you often в F# E But for once I meant what I said. B, G, B, G, B, G, B, G в Е I was salted by your hunger, G в Now you ve gone and lost your appetite Е G в And a little bird is every bit as handy in a fight.

в

B E I am lonely as a memory

G B B Despite the gathering round the fire.

B E G B Aren t you every bird on every wire?

F# E B When the time comes,

F#EBAnd rights have been read,

F#EI think of you often

BF#EBBut for once I meant what I said.

F# E B Here I stay, I lay me down,

F# E B In a house by a hill.

F#EBF#EBI m dug from the rubble,and cut from the kill.

F# E B Here I stay, I lay me down,

F#EBIn a house by the Hill.

F#EBI m dug from the rubble,and cut from the kill.(Times 3)