Verse:

G Em
We lended our heavy hearts,
G Em
motors with broken parts,
C* C G Em
we had a deck of cards it was a start.
G Em
We d sit out in the sun,
G Em
and wait for our skin to turn,
C***
you would ask for truth,
C** G Em
and I would look for something to burn.

Chorus:

F C Em
Oh we walked in a hallowed place back then Am F
the edge of Dublin, the edge of May and June.
C Em
Oh to live in a paper house again,

Am C G Em
where we grew by the light of the moon.

G Em

G Em
Often we took the train,
G Em
the sky pacing white to grey,
C*
when you or I would leave
C**
and the others would stay.

G Em
We were all that we had
G Em
and breathed in each others word,
C*
I would ask for truth
C** G Em
and you d look for something to burn.

Chorus

G Em

G Em
You were much younger then,
G Em
younger than I am now,
C* C**
I still keep as much an eye as the wires allow,
C* C**
I still keep as much an eye as the wires allow.

Chorus

G Em G Em

F C Em
Oh you know what you are to me
Am F
and you know you will always be.

	C	C*	C
e	--0--	--0--	--0--
B	--1--	--0--	--0--
G	--0--	--0--	--0--
D	--2--	--2--	--2--
A	--3--	--0--	--3--
E	--x--	--x--	--x--

The intro shows how the chords are played throughout the song.
During the chorus Em is played like this:

```
e |-----|
B |---0---|
G |-----0--|
D |----2---|
A |--2-----|

Unfortunately I wasn't sure about how the different C-chords are called.
