Lisa Hannigan
[Intro]
{f G} {f D} {f Em} {f D} (repeat 2x)
[Verse 1]
           D Em
  Waking up today, it was cold out
                                 Em
                            D
   There s something I should say, but I can t get my head around
                   Bm
                       Am
  The bends in your brain, and your elaborate pain
G
           D Em D
  Makes me ti---red
[Verse 2]
G
               D
                    Em
  As an old balloon, I hold my breath
                         D
  Like a penance paid too soon, and with too much eagerness
                           Am
  To know what is true when air is changed by you
           D Em D
  Makes it ha---rd
[Pre-Chorus]
     Bm
              Am
   I don t know where it comes from
           Bm Am
  Where to go when the rains come
[Chorus]

  When the rain
         C
                     Bm
   Put me back in the bottle
            Αm
   Where the sea meets the sun
            C
   Where the bones and their rattle
                  Αm
  They don t mean anything to no one
             Bm
   I, I had a swing
          Αm
   When my salt was my own
         C
   I d my teeth bared for battle
