Lisa Loeb

[Intro]

C F

[Verse 1]

C

Who would steal on sunday?

F

Who d made them believe make believe?

C

G

Who d buy a prayer when you can pray for free?

F

If the way you drank your coffee was the way you looked at me,

G

Then I could take both my hands off the tv.

[Refrain]

Am G

C

I ve been sleeping on half of my bed lately,

Am G

C

And thinking about what you said to me,

Am

C

Em

F

you re tipsy, you re turning, you are alive, you are burning, oh

[Chorus]

Am C

Em

Lisa, won t you listen?

Am C

Em

The moon shines for you.

Am

C

Em

F

You re tipsy, you re turning, you are alive, you are burning, oh

[Verse 2]

C

F

A sweet man will sing a seafaring song,

C

G

And a dear, strong woman coos gently along.

F

Good guys at the cozy are servin folks for free.

G

Did you ever notice there are so many people in bands in the city?

[Refrain]
