Verse 1:

D Am
One day well on one tombstone

C
All our names should go

G
We shared a life

D Am
The beauty and the ugliness

C
Through all we ve been and with

G
The birth of a child

Chorus:

D Am
Thanks for throwing me the line when I ve lost sight of it

C G
You re the only reason I can exhale

D Am
And now, suddenly, oh, when I find that the outcome s just not right

C
From what I just did

G
You re the only thing I can breathe through

Verse 2:

D Am
You re heaven, my sweet friends, a few lines of poetry

C G
It may be laughable, but thanks for laughing with me

D Am
Yes, and the next time I wrap myself around a tree

C
And I know that you ll be there with bells on

G
Yeah, to pull me off

Chorus:

D Thanks for throwing me the line when I ve lost sight of it Am
C You re the only reason I can exhale G
D And now, suddenly, oh, when I find that the outcome s just not right Am
C From what I just did
G You re the only thing I can breathe through

Bridge:

C And you can tell me a story I ve heard before G D
C I was such a motherfucker then
G And you didn t tell me where to go D
