

Coin Laundry Acoustic
Lisa Mitchell

Overview: Throughout the song, Lisa only strums the bass notes (the thickest 3, and sometimes the 4th), slapping the strings after each bar.

The chord changes are a little confusing to explain, but she strums the chord twice, slaps the string, strums the chord again, then changes chords.

Boom boom click boom boom boom click boom boom boom click boom boom boom x2

C C C G
So there I was Sitting on the top of the world In a coin laundry

C C C G
Well I could have been royalty Sitting in the palace like a queen

F C G G
Do you have a dollar? Do you have a dollar for me?

F C G G
Have you got a house on a hill And a bed for three?

F C G G
do you have a story Do you have a story for me?

F C G G (hold)
Tell me about the days when You were seventeen

C C C G
Do you, do you

C C C G
Do you, do you

C C C G
So now I m here Sitting on the edge throwing these stones to the long lost friends

C C C G
I could have been a common thief Sitting in the dirt quite happily

F C G G
Do you have a dollar? Do you have a dollar for me?

F C G G
Maybe just an house and a hill on a lemon tree

F C G G
Do you have a memory Do you have a memory for me?

F C G G (hold)
Do you know the one where we all live happ-ily

C C C G

Do you, do you

C C C G(hold)

Do you, do you

oh~

F C G G

Do you have a dollar? Do you have a dollar for me?

F C G G

Maybe just an hour or two and a pot of tea

F C G G

Do You have a memory, do you have a reason for me?

F C G G

Tell me about the girl you met in the coin laundry

F C G G

Oh Can I be the girl that you met

F C G G

Can I be the girl that you met, Can I be the girl that you met in the coin laundry?

F C G G

Oh can I be the girl that you met

F C G G(strum of each)

Can I be the girl that you met Can I be the girl that you met in the coin laundry?
