

Far Far Far Away
Lisa Mitchell

Lisa Mitchell s song Far, Far, Far Away from her Welcome To The Afternoon EP.

Capo on 7th fret

Dsus2 - xx0230

Asus2 - x02200

Intro

Dsus2

Verse

Dsus2                      Asus2                      Dsus2

We had lunch in a bakery,

at the end of your street.

Asus2    Dsus2

You said you couldn t stay.

Asus2    Dsus2

Well I suspect you re looking

in all the wrong places,

Asus2    Dsus2

but you won t forget.

Chorus

Bm            G                      D                      A

All the while I was humming to myself, to myself.

Bm                      G                      D                      Asus2

And I was staring out the window to somewhere far, far, far,

Bm                      G                      D

far away.

A                      Bm                      G                      D                      A

To somewhere far, far, far away.

Bm G D A

Verse

Dsus2                      Asus2                      Dsus2

We were friends in the 5th grade, in the 5th grade.

Asus2                      Dsus2

But you ran away.

Asus2                      Dsus2

And I was left on the oval,

under the oak tree,

Asus2            Dsus2

but you found me.

Chorus

Em                    G                    D                    A
All the while I was humming to myself, to myself.

Em                    G                    D                    Asus2
And I was staring out the window to somewhere far, far, far,

Em                    G                    D
far away.

A                    Bm                    G                    A
To somewhere far, far, far away.

Outro

Em G D A (repeat to fade)

-----
If you want you can play the Asus2 and Dsus2 as A and D, but the sus2 makes it sound
to the original song.
