Once A Year Lisa Mitchell

Oh, oh

Once a year

This song isn t a published song, but it is Lisa Mitchell s original song. If youtube, you can see it in one of her videos. It s the one where she s in a van singing songs with her friend. Anyways, I think it s a nice song.
Capo on 6
(Verse 1)
Stick by me, I ll stick by you
                 \mathbf{Em}
Don t under-estimate me
I ll stick by you, through black and blue
Till we fall through
G
Is that you sitting on the ground?
Well I ll pick you up
If you promise to pick me up to (Pre Chor:)
Well I m confused
I m confused
(Chorus:)
            G
I wish the fog would clear, I wish the atmosphere
Would be free of clouds for just once a year
I don t like rain on sunny days
And I hate it when it rains, on my parade

(Verse 2)

Well I don t like much being late
It s something that I ve grown to hate
But I kinda suck at being early
When you overcome the fall
Just twang a little at your soul
And those dreaded scenes will come back to haunt you
(Pre Chor:)

Well I m confused
I m confused

I wish the fog would clear, I wish the atmosphere
Would be free of clouds for just once a year
