No-one else tried anything on me. You were the first one.
Oh it was not just my pride it was just physical. We were too tangled to see
We had to change in our time we all just changed too many times.
Out on our streets those faces look similar. Its age and ageless ones.
They wander right past me, I am invisible. That's the way I like it.

C                    Am                    Em                    Am

I wasn't sure. I wanna know what you needed. What you needed.
I wasn't sure. I wanna know what you needed. What you needed.

C                    Am                    C                    Am

You just think I'm crazy. You just think I'm crazy.

So to hell with those rumours, I knew you would see right through in a way that's predicted.

It's just a new fashion, you are the new season. Babe have you lost your feeling?

We had to change in our time.

I wasn't sure. I wanna know what you needed. What you needed.

I wasn't sure. I wanna know what you needed. What you needed.

You just think I'm crazy. You just think I'm crazy.
