So many people
I know only a few
Yes I may say that I love this man and that man
But what keeps me from loving you?

Date of birth, geography
The color of my skin, ideology
You got ten fingers, two legs, one nose
Like me, just like me

A G#m
And its as simple as that, you see

C#m B
And if I dont know who to love, I love them all

C#m B
And if I dont know who to trust, I trust them all

C#m B G#m A B
And if I dont know who to kill, I may kill myself instead

From the mouth of a baby
Will come the world saving words

That will save us all
From the lungs of a child
Will come the everlasting breath of God

Increasing peace and honesty
And not carrying on inspite of me
Dont you know
This aint about no race, no creed

And its as simple as that, you see

And if I dont know who to love, I love them all
And if I dont know who to trust, I trust them all
And if I dont know who to kill, no suicide, Im already dead

As simple as that, blah blah, ad lib....

so there you go, the verses are all C#m B with the bass line varying a little, the bass I gave in the tab was just an example that pops up often enough.
