Who treats her like a mother
And what do you say to the man
Who treats him like a father
Come and see my heart

Come inside and learn
Come and see my soul, it s like yours
I say it s just like yours
Who is making over
Idolizing princes
Banishing the dreamers
With barbed wire fences
And telling all the children who run to her feet
That they have no vision and love s all diseased
Free my son
