Dsus2 Cadd9
I was packing to move to New York City

Dsus2 Cadd9
You were the last thing I thought I d find

Dsus2 Cadd9
Miles and miles away you should be gone now

Am7 Em C D
But our years together play like movies in my mind

G Cadd9
Because I found your letters and the John Barton record

Em7 Cadd9
that we spun till it was dead

G
I found your mix tape for the road

Cadd9 Em7
And two tickets for the show and your sock

Cadd9
Under my bed, and now I can t get you out of my head

Em7 F#/D G Cadd9
Em7 F#/D G Cadd9

Dsus2 Cadd9

Memories of you seem to linger here

Dsus2 Cadd9

And they re getting harder to ignore

Dsus2 Cadd9

I swear I heard you singing in the kitchen

Am7 Em C

And your bare feet tapping the rhythm on the floor

Am7 Em C

I thought I saw you walking through that door

Am7 Em C D

Oh, I wish you d walk through that door

G

Cadd9

Why don t you come and get those letters and the John Barton record

Em7 Cadd9

that we spun till it was dead

G

I found your mix tape for the road

Cadd9 Em7

And two tickets for the show and your sock

Cadd9

Under my bed, come get yourself out of my head

Em7 F#/D G Cadd9

Em7 F#/D G Cadd9

Bm C Em

Oh, now that you hear, you re far more beautiful

D*

Than I remembered

Bm C Em

Ooooooooooooooh, remind me why

D* C

We re not together, shouldn t we be together

G

Cadd9

Why don t you come and get your letters and we ll spin some records

Em7 Cadd9

then go out and paint the town with it

G

I got two tickets to the show

Cadd9 Em7

And I think that we should go, and if you want

Cadd9

You can crash on my bed, because I d rather you there

Than in my head

Em7 F#/D G Cadd9
