

Little Digger
Liz Phair

Little Digger/Liz Phair

Dmaj7
XX0222
Gsus2
XX5435
A(2)
XX7655

D Bm A G
Dig little digger, don t be shy
D Bm A D
You saw your mother with another guy
D Bm A G
You think you ll tell her that she s one of a kind, you say
A D Bm A
My Mother is mine

D Bm A G
You put your trucks up on the bed next to him
So he can get a better look at them, you say
This ones my favorite one, this one you can t have
A D Bm A
I got it from my Dad, you say
I got it from my Dad

G A D A G
Now you re thinking little thoughts about it taking every inch of him in
What does it mean when something changes how its always been
G A Dmaj7 D G
And in your head you keep repeating the line
F#m A
My Mother is mine

D Bm A G
I ve done the damage, the damage is done
D Bm A D
I pray to God that I m the damaged one
D Bm A G
In all these grown-up complications that you don t understand
A D Bm A
I hope you can, someday
I hope you can

G A D A G
Now you re thinking little thoughts about it taking every inch of him in
What does it mean when something changes how its always been

G A Dmaj7 D G
And in your head you keep repeating the line
F#m A Gsus2 A Gsus2 A
My Mother is mine She s mine she s mine
Bm A G A
She s mine

G A D A G
Now you re thinking little thoughts about it taking every inch of him in
What does it mean when something changes how its always been

G A Dmaj7 D G
And in your head you keep repeating the line
F#m A
My Mother is mine

D A G A D A G A D

<http://docweasel.com>
doc@docweasel.com