Here s Lloyd Cole s "Mannish Girl" - a non-album track on the "Morning is Broken" CD5. Great song - should have been on the album.

*verse 2 - same*

Well I had a girl in London town
She picked me up and spun me round
I guess she was a mannish kind of girl
I went away and I still don t know why
Six feet under is where my bloody heart lies
I m just afraid I can t forget her now

*chorus -same*

So I sit around and wait
And watch the grass grow green
And count the cars
Feeling lost alone and misunderstood
So I wait, hey hey
So I wait, hey hey, hey hey

*verse 3 - same*

I used to be too big too crawl
Now I don t give a damn at all
I d rather be a mannish kind of girl
Yeah I used to get drunk on that Spanish wine
But now I m drunk most all the time
I guess I m just afraid I can t forget her now

*chorus - same - keep repeating D A Em7 G over extra lines*

And so I sit around and wait
And watch the grass grow green
And count the cars
Feeling lost alone and misunderstood
So I wait, hey hey
Yeah I wait, hey hey
Yes I wait, hey hey
Yeah I wait, hey hey, hey hey
