Can we rewind to a time when you were here?

I couldn t cry, I couldn t function

I just tried to shake em

I kissed their lips and tugged their cheeks

Begging God they'd come take me

It isn't right, it's not their fault

They are too sweet, they are too young

Give them back, they are not yours

Let 'em live, love, and grow old

[CHORUS]

Repeat till end.
