The Lonesome Brothers

Call Hannah

capo 3

G D
When the ball has come unwound

C D
It lays a tangled map all over the ground

G D
And the clock spins like a toy

C
And you know its gonna fall

Just like the walls of Troy

G C D
When the doors are closed and the road's unpaved

G C D
Tickets read the same for the doomed and the saved

G C D Em
I call Hannah cause she might be the one to raise the setting sun

D C
Cause she might be the one

G C G
I call Hannah cause she might be the one

G D
Before the morning shows no light

C Em
On the handle of the door

G D
Frozen thick with ice

G D
And the slowly turning key

C Em
That draws the weary home

But sets that wagon free

Well there's clouds on the road
And ghosts in the air
The bridge is down
there's detours everywhere

But I call Hannah cause she might be the one

To raise the setting sun
Cause she might be the one
I call Hannah cause she might be the one

Well Hannah is her own small town
Sheâ€™s Sunday afternoon with a carnival sound
She moves lightly through the day
She doesnâ€™t stop for rain
Well thereâ€™s nothing in her way

When the numbers say that its all over
Someoneâ€™s crushed the very last four leaf clover
Well Iâ€™ve still got a hand because I know her

And I call Hannah cause sheâ€™ll know where to go
To watch the melting snow
Sheâ€™ll know where to go
I call Hannah cause she might be the one to raise the setting sun
Cause she might be the one
I call Hannah cause she might be the one
