Intro: G/B C G/B (four times)

Well I rode into town with the ragtop down
C G/B
I was lookin for that homecomin queen

That three-by-nine lit hotel sign read
C G/B
Welcome back class of eighty-three

There were football guys twice their size
C G/B
Cheerleaders dyin the grey in their hair

The names were the same but the faces had changed
C G/B
I didn t recognize anyone there

CHORUS:

C
That used to be us, we used to be cool
G D
With the music cranked up hangin out after school
G/B C
That used to be Jill, that used to be Joe
G Em
Tell me where in the world did we all go
G/B C G/B C G/B
That used to be us, that used to be us

I had a drink with some buds played a lot of catch-up
C G/B
Danced with my date from the prom

But as hard as I tried until I closed my eyes

C G/B
Everybody I knew was gone

There was Mr. Finch he taught English and French

C G/B
He was dancin with a couple of canes

And that homecomin queen yeah the girl of my dreams

C G/B
She didn t even remember my name

CHORUS:

C
That used to be us, we used to be cool
G D
With the music cranked up hangin out after school
G/B C
That used to be Jill, that used to be Joe
G Em
Tell me where in the world did we all go
G/B C G/B C G/B
That used to be us, that used to be us

solo

Em G
As I stand here and look around
Em G
I can t help but wonder who we ll be ten years from now

CHORUS:

C
That used to be us, we used to be cool
G D
With the music cranked up hangin out after school
G/B C
That used to be Jill, that used to be Joe
G Em
Tell me where in the world did we all go
G/B C G/B C G/B
That used to be us, that used to be us
