Intro: F#/B B F#/B (four times)

Well I rode into town with the ragtop down
     B   F#/B
I was lookin for that homecomin queen

That three-by-nine lit hotel sign read
B   F#/B
Welcome back class of eighty-three

There were football guys twice their size
B   F#/B
Cheerleaders dyin the grey in their hair

The names were the same but the faces had changed
B   F#/B
I didn t recognize anyone there

CHORUS:

                          B
That used to be us, we used to be cool
       F#   C#
With the music cranked up hangin out after school
    F#/B   B
That used to be Jill, that used to be Joe
     F#   Bbm
Tell me where in the world did we all go
    F#/B   B   F#/B   B F#/B
That used to be us,   that used to be us

I had a drink with some buds played a lot of catch-up
B   F#/B
Danced with my date from the prom

But as hard as I tried until I closed my eyes
B   F#/B
Everybody I knew was gone

There was Mr. Finch he taught English and French
B   F#/B
He was dancin with a couple of canes

And that homecomin queen yeah the girl of my dreams
B   F#/B
She didn t even remember my name

CHORUS:

                                        B
That used to be us, we used to be cool
       F#   C#
With the music cranked up hangin out after school
     F#/B   B
That used to be Jill, that used to be Joe
       F#   Bbm
Tell me where in the world did we all go
     F#/B   B   F#/B   B F#/B
That used to be us,   that used to be us

solo

Ebm   F#
As I stand here and look around
Ebm   F#
I can t help but wonder who we ll be ten years from now

CHORUS:

                                        B
That used to be us, we used to be cool
       F#   C#
With the music cranked up hangin out after school
     F#/B   B
That used to be Jill, that used to be Joe
       F#   Bbm
Tell me where in the world did we all go
     F#/B   B   F#/B   B F#/B
That used to be us,   that used to be us
