/Midnight Hour - Long Addiction/
/Written By Paul Curtis-Harper/
/Music By Long Addiction/

/Verse - 1/

```
   C                      G
     Take a look at your window
                           C
     Tell me what you can see
                        G
     A million different people
                            Am
     Staring right back at me
```

/Bridge/

```
                           Em                F                    C      G
     But while the world is wide awake i ll see, can you see the sun
   Am                        Em              F
     Take the last breath you can take, today, it doesn t matter anyway
```

/Chorus - 1/

```
   C                    G                    F
     I m coming back again, I m telling you my friend
     I m walking through the midnight hour again
   C                    G                    F
     I m coming back again, could it be the end
     While i m walking through the midnight hour again
```

/Verse - 2/

```
     I feel i m always looking for ya
     Invisible to me
     I spend my time without ya
     Wishing you were here with me
```

/Bridge/
/Chorus - 1/
/Verse - Solo/
/Bridge/
/Chorus - 1/

/Chorus - 2/

```
   C                      G                           F
```

        I m coming back again, I m telling you my friend
        I m walking through the midnight hour again
   C                         G                        F
        I m coming home again, could it be the end
