Next Plateau
Longwave

pretty damn fun song to play and sing with. This song took me forever to figure out all notes, theres not that many but still. i think this is the first tab (well, its more chords, but you know) ever made to this song and im pretty sure i did a 100% job on it, so enjoy!

THIS SONG IS TUNED A HALF STEP DOWN

           B          C#m          E          Eb         G#m         F#
E|-----0---------1---------1---------0---------0---------3-----|
B|-----1---------3---------1---------0---------1---------3-----|
G|-----0---------2---------2---------0---------2---------0-----|
D|-----2---------0---------3---------2---------2---------0-----|
A|-----3---------x---------3---------2---------0---------2-----|
E|-----x---------x---------1---------0---------x---------3-----|

B
tell me everything I need to know
                                    C#m
calling out to this plateau is behind
do you if there s nothing left
                                       C#m
and is there life after death but in time
E
come and take me for a little ride
Eb
i ll meet you on the other side
C#m   Eb   G#m
a voice is blaring in my head
    E(let ring)   B
you might aswell be dead
                F#
if you re not already
tell me is this just another trick
                                       C#m
another turn to make me sick on myself
B
if im doing what I ought C#m
but with the same old lonely thoughts of you E
come and take me for a little spin
Eb

and I ll have someone get you in C#m   Eb   G#m
a voice is blaring in my mind
    E(let ring)   B
you might aswell be blind
                F#
if you re not already
        E   F#   B   G#m
but im not gonna lose any more, oh no
    E   F#   B   G#m
im not gonna lose any more, oh no
E(let ring)   F#(ring) B
please don t let me lose any more

NEXT JUST PLAY THE VERSE, WITHOUT THE SINGING

E
come and take me for a little ride
Eb
i ll meet you on the other side
C#m   Eb   G#m
a voice is calling my name
E(let ring)   B
you might aswell be saved
                  F#
if you re not already
        E   F#   B   G#m
but im not gonna lose any more, oh no
    E   F#   B   G#m
im not gonna lose any more, oh no
E(let ring)   F#(ring) B
please don t let me lose any more
