[Verse 1]

        Cm
All my life,
          G#            Bb
I ve been fighting a war
        Cm       G#            Bb
I can t talk to you or your friends
        Cm
It s not only you,
   G#            Bb              Cm
My heart jumps around when I m alluded to
             G#      Bb
This will not do
           Cm          G#        Bb
Cause I was raised up to be admired,
       Cm
to be noticed
      G#                  Bb
But when you re withdrawn,
         Cm
it s the closest thing
      G#          Bb           Cm
to assault when all eyes are on you
             G#      Bb
This will not do
```

Cm â€" Cm - G# - Bb
Cm â€" Cm - G# â€" Bb
Cm â€" Cm - G# â€" Bb
Cm â€" Cm - G# â€" Bb

[Verse 2]

           Cm
I m faking glory
        G#            Bb
Lick my lips toss my hair
         Cm
And send a smile over
        G#            Bb
And the story s brand new
            Cm

But I can take it from here,
        G#   Bb   Cm   G#   Bb
I ll find my own bravado

[Chorus]

Eb
   It s a switch flipped
It s a pill tipped back
                    Fm
It s a moon eclipsed, oh
Cm   Bb
   And I can tell you that when the lights come on I ll be ready for this
Eb
   It s in your bloodstream
                                        Fm
A collision of atoms that happens before your eyes
Cm   Bb
    It s a marathon run or a mountain you scaled without thinking of size
Eb
I was frightened of every little thing
                    Fm   Cm
that I thought was out to get me down
                                Bb
To trip me up, and laugh at me,
      Eb
But I learned not to want the quiet of the room
              Fm   Cm
with no one around to find me out

I want the applause, the approval, the things that make me go, oh

[Chorus]

Eb
   It s a switch flipped
It s a pill tipped back
                    Fm
It s a moon eclipsed, oh
Cm   Bb
   And I can tell you that when the lights come on I ll be ready for this
Eb
   It s in your bloodstream
                                        Fm
A collision of atoms that happens before your eyes
Cm   Bb
    It s a marathon run or a mountain you scaled without thinking of size
Eb
I was frightened of every little thing
                    Fm   Cm

                        Bb
To trip me up, and laugh at me,
     Eb
But I learned not to want the quiet of the room
                Fm        Cm

I want the applause, the approval, the things that make me go, oh
