[Verse 1]

C#m
All my life,
A B
I ve been fighting a war
C#m A B
I can t talk to you or your friends
C#m
It s not only you,
A B C#m
My heart jumps around when I m alluded to
A B
This will not do
C#m A B
Cause I was raised up to be admired,
C#m
to be noticed
A B
But when you re withdrawn,
C#m
it s the closest thing
A B C#m
to assault when all eyes are on you
A B
This will not do

C#m " C#m - A - B
C#m " C#m - A " B
C#m " C#m - A " B
C#m " C#m - A " B

[Verse 2]

C#m
I m faking glory
A B
Lick my lips toss my hair
C#m
And send a smile over
A B
And the story s brand new
C#m

But I can take it from here,

A B C#m A B

I ll find my own bravado

[Chorus]

E

It s a switch flipped

It s a pill tipped back

F#m

It s a moon eclipsed, oh

C#m

B

And I can tell you that when the lights come on I ll be ready for this

E

It s in your bloodstream

F#m

A collision of atoms that happens before your eyes

C#m

B

It s a marathon run or a mountain you scaled without thinking of size

E

I was frightened of every little thing

F#m C#m

that I thought was out to get me down

B

To trip me up, and laugh at me,

E

But I learned not to want the quiet of the room

F#m C#m

with no one around to find me out

I want the applause, the approval, the things that make me go, oh

[Chorus]

It s a switch flipped

It s a pill tipped back

F#m

It s a moon eclipsed, oh

C#m

B

And I can tell you that when the lights come on I ll be ready for this
