

On A Bright May Morning
Loreena McKennitt

[Intro]

Am Dm F G C F C Dm G
F G Dm F G

[Verse]

Dm F G C
As I roved out on a bright May morning
F C Dm G
To view beyond, the meadows and flowers gay
F G Dm
Whom should I spy but my own true lover
F G
As she sat under yon willow tree

[Verse]

Dm F G C
I took off my hat and I did salute her
F C Dm G
Oh, I did salute her most courageously
F G Dm
When she turned around, well, the tears fell down from her
F G
Saying,
