[Verse]

Am G
Twas an English ladye bright
Am G
The sun shines fair on Carlisle wall
Am G
And she would marry a Scottish knight
Am Em Am Em
For love will still be lord of all

[Verse]

Am G
Blithely they saw the rising sun
Am Em
When he shone fair on Carlisle wall
Am G
But they were sad ere day was done
F G Am
Though love was still the lord of all

[Verse]

G
Her sire gave brooch and jewel fine
F G
Where the sun shines fair on Carlisle wall
Am G
Her brother gave but a flask of wine
F G Am
For ire that love was lord of all

[Verse]

Em
For she had lands, both meadow and lea
F G
Where the sun shines fair on Carlisle wall
Am G
For he swore her death, ere he would see
Am Em D
A Scottish knight the lord of all

[Verse]

Am Em
That wine, she had not tasted well
F G
The sun shines fair on Carlisle wall
Am G
When dead in her true love's arms she fell
F G Am
For love was still the lord of all

[Verse]

Em
He pierced her brother to the heart
F G
Where the sun shines fair on Carlisle wall
Am Em
So perish all would true love part
Am Em Am G
That love may still be lord of all

[Verse]

Am Em
And then he took the cross divine
F G
Where the sun shines fair on Carlisle wall
F G
And died for her sake in Palestine
Am F G Am
So love was still the lord of all

[Instrumental]

[Verse]

Am Em
Now all ye lovers that faithful prove
F G
The sun shines fair on Carlisle wall
F G
Pray for their souls, who died for love
Am Em Am
For love shall still be lord of all
