[Instrumental]

The English Ladye And The Knight Loreena McKennitt

Em

[Intro] Em F C G Αm  $\mathbf{E}\mathbf{m}$ Am G C G Am Em C G Am Am G Am Am  $\mathbf{Em}$ G Am G C G Am Em F G Am G Am Em Am Em F G Am G C G Am Em D Am G Am Em Am Em F [Verse] AmG Twas an English ladye bright The sun shines fair on Carlisle wall And she would marry a Scottish knight Em For love will still be lord of all [Verse] Blithely they saw the rising sun When he shone fair on Carlisle wall But they were sad ere day was done Though love was still the lord of all [Verse] Her sire gave brooch and jewel fine Where the sun shines fair on Carlisle wall Her brother gave but a flask of wine For ire that love was lord of all [Verse] For she had lands, both meadow and lea Where the sun shines fair on Carlisle wall For he swore her death, ere he would see A Scottish knight the lord of all

```
Αm
           \mathbf{Em}
                Αm
                     \mathbf{Em}
                         F
                            G
                               Am G C G Am Em F
    G
                                    G C G Am Em D
Αm
       Αm
                Am
                     Em
                         F
                            G
                                \mathbf{Am}
[Verse]
                                 Em
That wine, she had not tasted well
The sun shines fair on Carlisle wall
When dead in her true love s arms she fell
For love was still the lord of all
[Verse]
                                 Em
He pierced her brother to the heart
Where the sun shines fair on Carlisle wall
So perish all would true love part
                                  Am
                         \mathbf{Em}
That love may still be lord of all
[Verse]
    Am
And then he took the cross divine
Where the sun shines fair on Carlisle wall
And died for her sake in Palestine
So love was still the lord of all
[Instrumental]
     Em F C G
Am
                      Am
                           Em Am G C
                                             G Am Em
                                                          D
[Verse]
    Αm
Now all ye lovers that faithful prove
The sun shines fair on Carlisle wall
Pray for their souls, who died for love
                          F:m
For love shall still be lord of all
[Outro]
Αm
              C
                 G
                            \mathbf{Em}
                                 Αm
                                     G
                                        C
                                                     \mathbf{Em}
     \mathbf{Em}
                       Am
                                                Αm
Am
     \mathbf{E}\mathbf{m}
              C G
                       Am
                            \mathbf{Em}
                                Am G C
```