

Five Fingers Left

Loretta Lynn

(C) Once upon a time I had a real good friend at (G) least that s what I (C) thought

But it wasn t long till my good friend (G) and the man I love got (C) caught

So (F) who in the world is a (C) foolin who let s not kid (G) ourself

We can (C) count our friends (F) on one hand (G) and have five fingers (C) left

Friends are few and far between (G) believe me I should (C) know

And a real good way of findin out (G) is let no money (C) show

So (F) who in the world is a (C) foolin who let s not kid (G) ourself

We can (C) count our friends (F) on one hand (G) and have five fingers (C) left

When you re down and out and you need a friend you ll (G) find they re hard to (C) find

And when you do don t turn your back cause (G) you re friend will rob you (C) blind

So (F) who in the world is a (C) foolin who let s not kid (G) ourself

We can (C) count our friends (F) on one hand (G) and have five fingers (C) left

We all know what our enemies will do it s (G) our friends we ve got to (C) watch

Keep your eyes wide open and your big mouth shut and (G) you ll find out a (C) lot

(F) who in the world is a (C) foolin who let s not kid (G) ourself

We can (C) count our friends (F) on one hand (G) and have five fingers (C) left

So

(F) So who in the world is a (C) foolin who let s not kid (G) ourself

We can (C) count our friends (F) on one hand (G) and have five fingers (C) left
