

Lazy Moonshiner
Lost Dog Street Band

[Verse 1]

G

Lazy moonshiner

Em/B            Em            Em7            Em
shine your wet light on my dry lips

G

youre a coal miner

and this coal will make you stumble and trip

C7                            Em/B            Em
and mama cant take that bottle from you

C7

they say sunshine is happy,

Em/B            Em
lord moonshine is too

[Verse 2]

G

Lazy moonshiner,

thin this blood enough, to run through tight veins

G

firewater,

hit my head hard enough to flatten my brain

and mama cant take that bottle from you,

C7

they say sunshine is happy

lord moonshine is too

[Verse 3]

G

when morning comes

Em/B            Em            Em7            Em
Grind my coffee when the shotguns blast

G

its morning time

so cream my coffee with your lazy moonshine,

cream my coffee with your lazy moonshine

C7

Em/B            Em
cause your days intentions are as pointless as mine
