This is a song from Fallout: New Vegas.

(Instrumental break)

Cattle in the old corral, the open range all round
Sunlight and the smell of new mown hay
I remember though I ve wandered and much happiness I ve found
Still I wish that I could be back there today

I know my home is waiting for me by the river shore
I know that all the ones I love will welcome me once more
In dreams I see them now though it seems I m bound to roam
My thoughts are still of Texas and of home
