WHAT S GOOD Lou Reed

Life s like mayonnaise soda

That s what life s like without you

Life s like forever becoming but Life s forever dealing in hurt Now life s like death without livin That s what life s like without you

Life s like sanskrit to a pony
I see you in my mind s eye stranglin on your tongue
What good is knowin such devotion
I been around, huh, I know what makes things run

What good is seeing eye chocolate What good s a computerized nose And what good is cancer in April Why no good, no good at all

What good s a war without killing
What good is a rain that falls up
What good s a disease that won t hurt ya
Why no good, no good at all

What good are these thoughts that I m thinkin
They must be better, huh, not to be thinkin at all
A styrofoam lover with emotions of concrete
No, not much at all

What good is life without livin

What good is a lion that barks You we loved a life others throw away nightly It s not fair at all

What s good
Oh, baby what s good
What s good
What s good, not much at all

Hey baby what s good
What s good, what s good
What s good, what s good, not much at all

What s good, what s good What s good, life s good Life s good, life s good But not fair at all

Wow, this is better than a movie, Paul Zimmerman
