Woke up this morning, and I didnt feel that bad
last night was definately not one of the worst I ever had,
ate some dinner,
drank a few drinks,
didnt miss you baby, no matter what you think,
went back to my hotel room, went straight to bed,
I did not moan, I did not cry, I did not wish I was dead
[Chorus]
Α
                         В
Im alright, Im alright, Im alright without you.
Woke up this morning and I didnt have the blues,
So I pulled on my tube socks, laced up my running shoes, went to the resevoir to jog a mile or two
I didnt think about our love and I wasnt missing you, В
went back to the hotel room,
I took a few phone calls,
clean sheets on a made up bed, and art works on the walls
[Chorus]
                    Е
                                                       Е
Im alright, Im alright without you.

I woke up this afternoon, and I sat up in my bed,
There was a knorring in my gut and a pounding inmy head,
So I went to the bathroom, to the medicine chest,
there was razor blades and sleeping pills and all the rest,
but I was in control baby, I was so relaxed,
I found my self my dental floss, my favorite kind unwaxed !

Im alright without you.....
