

Strange Weirdos
Loudon Wainwright III

B E B E
Isn't it strange the two strangers
B E
Suddenly don't feel so strange
A E
It's something familiar, though this time is different
F#m B
What they're in for feels like sea change

E B
Isn't it weird the two weirdos
F#m A E
Can wind up not feeling that weird
A E
It's all so momentous, yet perfectly normal
F#m B
Scary but not to be feared

B
And it starts with a sentence
A
That might last a lifetime
E
Though it all might just
B
Go down in flames

B
If I let you know me then
A
Why would you want me
E
Each day I don't is a shame
G B G
Each day I don't is a great shame
F#m A E
Each day I don't is a great shame

F#m E F#m E B F#m B E A E F#m A F#m B

E B
Isn't it great that two people
E
Together can tear down one wall
A E

A handwriting is on, it s not hieroglyphic

F#m

B

That barrier just has to fall

B

E

Well, isn t it sad that most people

B

E

Stay so lonely, it s almost a crime

A

We might be strange weirdos

E

That can t be normal

F#m

B

To be frightened so much of our time

G

B

And it starts with a sentence

A

That might last a lifetime

B

Though it all might just

Go down in flames

G

B

E

If I let you know me then

A

E

Why would you want me?

E

B

Each day I don t is a shame

E

A

G

A

E

And each day I don t is a great shame