Verse 1:

Well you were high when I met you, now you ve fallen like a leaf from a tree.
(Water rains into the sea.) And every time the world goes round,
you re getting closer to the ground.

Chorus 1:

Air traffic control, I ve been gone, I ve been up, away from home, now my gear is down, I m circling round and I am coming in.
Running out of oxygen and my fuel is running low.
Runway lights, where do I go? I m looking down.
But they don t show.

Verse 2:

Well you were high when I met you, now you re coming in on my frequency.
(I can t hear you, can you see me?) You re cutting in.
I m breaking up, you re too low, try pulling up.

Chorus 2:

Air traffic control. (Hold on, I m coming in.)
Air traffic control. (Hold on, I m coming in.)
