G

Poor boy,

	D		C
You	played	it	cool	with the rich boys

	G
You	messed around	with their rich toys

	D		C
You	tried	so hard	to play	it smooth

	G		D		C
The	page	turned	to the	chapter	with the best	line

	G
You	thought	the book was never-ending

	D		C
You	thought	you d	get	to drink their wine

	G		D		C
Alright...

	G		D		C
Hey	hey.....

	G		D		C
Your	sister	came	down	from Watertown	with the message:

	G
Your	twisted head	is getting messed with

	D		C
I	can	see	it	in your eyes

Left out

D

C

You couldn't wait to be bought out

G

So you went ahead and sold out

C

With your twenty-dollar lies

And she said,

D

C

Don't forget, sister

D

C

She'll always be true

C

We come from a good home

C

That won't forget you

G D C x2

D

C

Drowning in a city filled with blue blood

G

Can't you see your blood is thicker?

C

You don't need that fancy car

D

C

Locked up in the middle of a sick dream

G

So give up your fascination

C

And remember who you are

C

So don't forget, sister

D

C

She'll always be true

D C
We come from a good home

D C
That won't forget you

G D C x2

G D
Burned out like a candle

C
Now I've gone out

G
Getting asked a lot of questions

D C
But my answers are all wrong

G
I need you

D C
Give tomorrow to be with you

G
Show me where I need to run to

D C
But the truth is that you're gone

D C
So don't forget, sister

D C
She'll always be true

D C
We come from a good home

D Cadd9
That won't forget you

D Cadd9
So I won't forget, sister

D Cadd9
I'll always be true

D Cadd9
Cause we came from a good home

D

Cadd9

And I won't forget you

Cadd9

G

D

Sister, take me away with you

Cadd9

G

D

Sister, take me away with you

Cadd9

G

D

Sister, take me away with you

Cadd9

G

D

Sister, take me away with you
