War

Lucero

I just figured this out a few minutes ago, and I decided to share it with you. This song is very good as an ending to a show, and it sounds good. The song is just 1 acoustic guitar and vocals (harmonys can be used on the chorus if desired)voicals should be in a southern accent but they sound fine with a regular accent. the A,C, and F chords are always before the comma then after the comma it slides to a G, then on the last word of the line it slides back to F. all F s and F s are barr chords.

have fun!

-The Gravedigger

the strumming pattern is as follows:

(Am)up down up down, up down up (C)down, up down up (F)down up down up (G-F) down.

I got drafted at 19, Me and a bunch of boys from home. January  $\hat{a} \in \mathbb{M}43$ , Drove out to Pine Bluff and signed on.

Went to basic south of Birmingham, Put me on a west coast bound train.

Spent three days out in San Diego, And they shipped me back east again.

Left a port out of New York, Slept for months in British rain.

Tore it up down in London town, And they shipped me out again.

â€~Never talk about those first days, Lots of friends left behind.

Made it all the way across France, And I fought at the Maginau line.

Rode a tank into Belgium, Liked them better than the French.

And like my daddy thirty years before me, Spent my time in a trench.

Lots of days thereâ $\in$ <sup>ms</sup> no water, But the liquor kept me warm.

The cellars were stocked to the ceilings with booze, So I carried a bottle with my gun.

The Preacher said  $\hat{a} \in B$  by she who is killed tonight, Shall dine with the lord in paradise.  $\hat{a} \in A$

Three times I made Sergeant, But  $I\hat{a}\in\mathbb{M}$ m not that kind of man. And pretty much just as quick as I could,  $I\hat{a}\in\mathbb{M}$ d get busted back to Private again.

â€~Caus taking orders never suited me, But givin' â€~em out was much worse. I could not stand to get my friends killed, So I took care of my self first. Now I know that don't sound right, But don't think too bad of me But now it keeps me up at nights, What I could've done differently.

I'd be no guest at the table of the Lord, His food is not to be mine. â€~Cause I cursed his name every chance that is could, I reckon that's why I'm still alive
