Lucinda Williams

INTRO: Dm, C, G x2

VERSE 1:

Dm C G
Thundering news hits me like a snowball
 G9
striking my face and shattering
Dm C G
Covering me in a fine powdery and mist
 G9
and mixing in with my tears
 Dm C G
And I m fifty-seven but I could be seven years old, G9
Cause I will never be able Dm C
to comprehend the expansiveness
 G
of what I ve just learned, that...

CHORUS:

C G/B Am7
You, have disappeared
 Am/G F9 F
You have been released
 Gsus4
You are flecks of light
 G
You are mist

Somewhere, spinning round the sun
Circling the moon
Traveling through time
You are mist

VERSE 2:

Walking through unfamiliar streets and I m shaking unfamiliar hands and I m hearing unfamiliar laughs and lovely language I don t understand
It s late October in Copenhagen
The skies are grey, the snow is falling
I see my breath outside, I m freezing
I m motionless, in disbelief, that...

REPEAT CHORUS

AD LIB (Dm, C, G) TO END

ENJOY!
