Price To Pay Lucinda Williams

PRICE TO PAY by LUCINDA WILLIAMS

(CAPO ON 2nd FRET brings it to the key of A, which is the key Lucinda plays it in. I find that using the GCD chord shapes is a lot easier. Also, the solo is picked out of the chords listed. The intro lick is a standard country lick and is very easy to play in G).

[V1] G

it weighs a lot, it costs a lot

G7 C

and it s worth a whole lot more

G D

but it s not something you could afford anyway

G G

cuz you weren t careful with my love

G7 C G

you lost the key to the door of my heart

D (

now there s a price you have to pay

[V2] G G

you can shop around and look around

G7 C

but you ll never find

G G D

another one quite like this one anyplace

3

and believe me, it won t be easy

G7 C G

to repair it this time cuz it s my heart

D

and there s a price you have to pay

[CHORUS]

D D G

it s my heart and there s a price you have to pay

C G

enough is enough

C G G

you played too rough with my heart

[SOLO]
(C-G, C-G, CG, GD, DG, CG)
           G
well, it s broken and there s nothin
   G7 C
that I can do now
     G
                        G
I can fix it but it won t ever be the same
                     G
I can pick up all the pieces
        G7
                  C
and start over somehow but it s my heart
and there s a price you have to pay
[CHORUS]
it s my heart and there s a price you have to pay
enough is enough
you played too rough with my heart
now there s a price you have to pay
 C
     G
enough is enough
you played too rough with my heart
now there s a price you have to pay
```

now there s a price you have to pay
