Leave On The Light
Lucky Boys Confusion

Verse-
C/G
The books about my dad condensed
        G
And the fables to remember this
  F
I think about it all the time
     Em   F
And realize it s vain
   C/G
I feel like gasoline tonight
      G
Let s dance so close we might catch fire
   Em
I can t be honest all the time
   F
I can t be honest all the time

Pre-Chorus-
G   F
Life is full of promises and prophecies
G   F
Well life has made me famous on my knees
G   F
And everywhere there s amateurs and enemies
G   F
Everywhere there s everyone but me

Chorus-
        C/G   G
She said you ll be fine
                        C/G   G
I promise that I ll leave on the light
                F   G
What are you afraid of?
                F   G
What are you afraid of?

Verse-
C/G   G
I advertise my memories, low and behold humanity
  F   Em   G
I condescend you sympathy can understand my pain
C/G   G
I can only hope this melody will scream across like clarity
  F
I can t be honest all the time

```
  G
I can t be honest all the time

Pre-Chorus-
F                                 Em
People say the army s got a home for me
F             Em
To find myself out of this rut
    F                             Em
And maybe greatness isn t in my destiny
        F                           Em
 Sides people say a lot of things so what?

Chorus-
        C/G        G
She said you ll be fine
                        C/G       G
I promise that I ll leave on the light
                    F    G
What are you afraid of?
                    F    G
What are you afraid of?

Bridge-
     C/G         G            Am
That alcohol is heavier than lead
    C/G        G            Am
And Hunter S. Thompson is dead
                C/G        G
She said you ll never have enough
          Am                  G
Until the day that you wake up
     F            G
And everything is gone
     F            G
Oh everything is gone

Chorus-
        C/G        G
She said you ll be fine
                        C/G      G
I promise that I ll leave on the light
                    F    G
What are you afraid of?
                    F    G
What are you afraid of?

Verse-
C/G                                G
I advertise my memories, low and behold humanity
   F                        Em              G
I condescend you sympathy can understand my pain
```

```
C/G                                             G
I can only hope this melody will scream across like clarity
   F
I can t be honest all the time
   G
I can t be honest all the time

Bridge-
     C/G          G               Am
That alcohol is heavier than lead
     C/G        G              Am
And Hunter S. Thompson is dead
                  C/G          G
She said you ll never have enough
           Am                    G
Until the day that you wake up
      F              G
And everything is gone
      F              G
Oh everything is gone
