

Something To Believe
Lucky Boys Confusion

This is how I play it. Let me know if you have corrections!

Intro:

B A D x2

Verses:

B

Popped up this morning just a little off center

A

God fearing world, I m so afraid to enter

D

Haven t decided; haven t decided what to do

B

Looking back, looking over my shoulder

A

Still agnostic, every day it gets older

D

Haven t decided; haven t decided what to do

B

Holy books, so many flaws no answers

A

Believe in him, or fear him like a cancer

D

Haven t decided; haven t decided what to do

B

Bible banging, slanging Jesus at my door

A

Hey son, this is something you can t afford

D

Haven t decided; haven t decided...

Chorus:

B

Oh, give me something to believe

D

A

So many down on their knees

G

It baffles me, baffles me

x2

Verse:

Popped up this morning like nipples in the winter

God fearing world, I m so afraid to enter

Haven t decided; haven t decided what to do.

After life, after death uncertain

Choose your side before they re dropping the curtain

Haven t decided; haven t decided what to do.
Where do I go for my inspiration
Go with the flow, with the standing ovation
Haven t decided; haven t decided what to do.
Standing idle, waiting for doomsday
Damned if you do, damned if you don t say
Haven t decided; haven t decided.

Chorus:

Oh, give me something to believe
So many down on their knees
It baffles me, baffles me
x2

Bridge:

B G
Learned my lesson from history
D A
I m not claiming to be Jesus Christ and company
B G
I am needy, I m a thief
D A
I m not claiming to have role model qualities
B G
But here s a lesson, Simplicity
D A
From a poor boy who don t believe in destiny
B G
Be good to one another, set yourself free
D A
All the pieces they fall together

Chorus:

Oh, give me something to believe
So many down on their knees
It baffles me, baffles me
x2