

Yours And Mine
Lucy Dacus

D F#m
I m afraid of pain
G
Both yours and mine
A
Both yours and mine
D F#m
I m afraid of pain
G
From where it comes
A
And where it falls

[Pre-Chorus]

A
Somebody lit the store on fire
A
Somebody lit the house on fire
A
Somebody lit the crowd on fire
D A
Marching away and you ve got nothing to say
A
You ve got nothing to say
D
Have you got nothing to say?

[Chorus]

A D A
For those of you who told me I should stay indoors
A
Take care of you and yours
A
Take care of you and yours
D
But me and mine (me and mine)
D
Me and mine (me and mine)
A
We ve got a long way to go
F#m
Before we get home
D
Cause this ain t my home anymore
Bm
This ain t my home anymore
D

This ain t my home

[Pre-Chorus]

A

Somebody lit the store on fire

A

Somebody lit the house on fire

A

Somebody lit the crowd on fire

D

A

Marching away and you ve got nothing to say

A

You ve got nothing to say

D

Have you got nothing to say?

[Chorus]

A

D

A

For those of you who told me I should stay indoors

A

Take care of you and yours

A

Take care of you and yours

D

But me and mine (me and mine)

D

Me and mine (me and mine)

A

We ve got a long way to go

F#m

Before we get home

D

Cause this ain t my home anymore

Bm

This ain t my home anymore

D

This ain t my home

[Outro]

A

Take care of you and yours

D

Take care of you and yours

D

Take care of you and yours

A

Take care of you and yours

D

But me and mine (me and mine)

D

Me and mine (me and mine)

A

Me and mine (me and mine)

A

Me and mine (me and mine)

D

Me and mine (me and mine)

D

Me and mine (me and mine)

A

Me and mine (me and mine)

A

Me and mine

[Solo]

D A D A D A D (2 measures each)

A

We ve got a long way to go

F#m

Before we get home

D

Cause this ain t my home anymore

Bm

This ain t my home anymore

D

This ain t my home anymore

Bm

This ain t my home anymore

D A to close