

Extra Ordinary
Lucy Hale

G D
I m imprisoned, I m living a lie
Em C
Another night of putting on a disguise
G D
I wanna tear it off and step in the light
Em C
Don t you, donâ€™t you?

D C
So now I m knocking at your front door
D C
And I m looking for the right cure
D C
I m still a little bit unsure
D
Cause I know,
C D
Yeah I know

G D
That most people see me as ordinary
Em C
But if you look close you ll find I m very
Em D
Interesting and hard to know
C D
You can never tell where this might go
G D
Cause I m not your average, average person
Em C
I don t know much, but I know for certain
Em D
That I m just a little bit extra, extra
C C G
I m just a little bit extra ordinary

G D
I can see it from the spark in your eyes
Em C
You believe in all the things you deny
G D
You wanna fly and leave your worries behind
Em C

Don't you, don't you?

D C
So now I'm knocking at your front door

D C
And I'm looking for the right cure

D C
I'm still a little bit unsure
