Lucy Kaplansky Return of the Grievous Angel written by Gram Parsons

G C G
Won t you scratch my itch sweet Annie Rich
G D G
And welcome me back to town
G C G
Come out on your porch or I ll step into your parlour
A D
And I ll tell you how it all went down
G G7 C
Out with the truckers and the kickers and the cowboy angels
G C
And a good saloon in every single town
C D G
And I remember something that you once told me
C D G
And I ll be damned if it did not come true
C D G Bm Em
Twenty thousand roads I went down, down, down
C D G
And they all lead me straight back home to you
Bm C D G
Cause I headed West to grow up with the country
Em D G
Across those prairies with those waves of grain
Bm C D G
And I saw my devil, and I saw my deep blue sea
C D C D G
And I thought about a calico bonnet from Cheyenne to Tennessee
G C G
We flew straight across that river bridge,
D G
Last night half past two
G C G A
The switchman waved his lantern goodbye and good day as we

D

Went rolling through

G G7 C
Billboards and truckstops pass by the grievous angel

G D G
And I know just what I have to do

SOLO

Bm C D G
And the man on the radio won't leave me alone

Em D
He wants to take my money for something that

G
I've never been shown

Bm C D G
And I saw my devil, and I saw my deep blue sea

C D C D G
And I thought about a calico bonnet from Cheyenne to Tennessee

G C G
The news I could bring I met up with the king

D G
On his head an amphetamine crown

C G
He talked about unbuckling that old bible belt

A7 Du0004
And headed out for some desert town

G G7 C
Out with the truckers and the kickers and the cowboy angels

G C
And a good saloon in every single town

C D G
And I remember something that you once told me

C D G
And I'll be damned if it did not come true

C D G Bm Em
Twenty thousand roads I went down, down, down

C D G
And they all lead me straight back home to you

C D G Bm Em
Twenty thousand roads I went down, down, down

C D G
And they all lead me straight back home to you
