Lucy Kaplanski You Just Need A Home by Lucy Kaplansky

D
I like the way you play your songs
D/C
I like the way you sing
G C G
You look so good in colored lights
C D
And the brilliant spotlight rings
D
And up there your eyes are fiery
D/C
And hotter by degree
G C G
But weary and so confused
C D
When no one else can see
D
So you need to feel the fire
D/C
When you feel it start to go
G C G
To feel the heat of all those lights
C D
Long after the show
D
And you need it so much now
D/C
You don t even know
G C G
All the world s a stage to you
C D
Then where else can you go
G A D
You could come away with me tonight

G A D
 I can make it all right
G A D
 You don t need a spotlight
G A D
 You just need a home
D
 I want to drive away with you
D/C
 Far from New York streets
G C G
 And head on a highway
C D
 Where the sky and road still meet
D
 And the sky out there is bright
D/C
 And the moon s about to rise
G C G
 It s all there waiting
C D
 If you look into my eyes
D
 Cause here in the city
D/C
 Theres isn t much to see
G C G
 Here in this apartment
C D
 You can hardly breathe
D
 And the only lights you see tonight
D/C
 Are on the ceiling moving slow
G C G
 Flashing signs and headlights
C D
 In an eerie neon glow
G A D
 You could come away with me tonight
G A D
 I can make it all right
G A D
 You don t need a spotlight
G A D
 You just need a home
