Bikes
Lucy Rose

Lucy Rose - Bikes

Intro: E

```
E           F# E           F#
I fall asleep, infront of the T.V.
E        F#  E        F#
So I forget what i m thinking.
```

```
    C#m                     E
And oh don t you wanna know,
A
is it any easier.
C#m                   E
Oh don t you wanna know,
F#
is it fun to close your eyes?
```

```
            A
Were going round and round and up and and down,

turning something inside out.
```

```
C#m                         E
Were driving from the backseat,
C#m               E
holding on to tightly
```

```
            A
Were going round and round and up and and down,

turning something inside out.
```

```
  C#m                         E
```

```
                Were driving from the backseat,
 C#m                E
holding on too tightly.
     B                      C#m            A     F#
The colours they merge the scream and shout

E          F#   E        F#
I watch my mind, try and work things out,
E              F#   E              F#
i think its clear, but three days later its wrong.

    C#m                    E
And oh don t you wanna know,
 A
is it any easier.
C#m                    E
Oh don t you wanna know,
F#
is it fun to close your eyes?

            A
Were going round and round and up and and down,

turning something inside out.

C#m                      E
Were driving from the backseat,
C#m            E
holding on to tightly

            A
Were going round and round and up and and down,

turning something inside out.
C#m                      E
Were driving from the backseat,
C#m            E
holding on too tightly.
     B                      C#m            A     F#
The colors they merge they scream they shout.
```

```
C#m                            E                    A
Listen up, listen hear everybody scream out loud.
C#m                            E                    A
Listen up, listen hear everybody scream out loud.
C#m                            E                    A
Listen up, listen hear everybody scream out loud.
C#m                            E                    A
Listen up, listen hear everybody scream out.

             A                    B
Were going round and round and up and and down,
C#m                    E
turning something inside out.
             A                    B
Were going round and round and up and and down,
C#m                    E
turning something inside out.
             A                    B
Were going round and round and up and and down,
C#m                    E
turning something inside out.
             A                    B
Were going round and round and up and and down,
C#m                        E
turning something inside out.

C#m
Were driving from the backseat,
                 E
holding on too tightly.

             A
Were going round and round and up and and down,

turning something inside out.
C#m                          E
Were driving from the backseat,
C#m                  E
holding on too tightly.
C#m                          E
Were driving from the backseat,
C#m                    B    A
holding on too tightly.

Enjoy :)
```