              D
[Verse 1]
I know some days are hard
   G
                  C
But I know how strong you are
The front door s open if you re broken
Let s talk the night away
           Em7
Sometimes we get it wrong, stick the kettle o-o - on [Verse 2]
               CG
I spend my nights a-lone
           C
I keep these doors closed
                                 C
And it don t help me when they tell me that I should just man up
Some days we get it wrong, stick the kettle o-o - on
```

```
[Chorus]

G G G Em

And if you re low -ooh You re not alo - one

D G G
 [Chorus]
                                                                                                                                                  Em D
 I hope you know - ooh
                                          Em7
                                                                                                                        D
 Sometimes we get it wrong, stick the kettle o-o - on [Verse 3]
                                           C G
 I find it hard to sleep
G C G
 I lost my self belief
                                                                                                   C G
 I didn t mean to but I seem to have ended up so lost
                                     Em7
                                                                                                             D
 Sometimes we get it wrong, stick the kettle o-o - on [Chorus]
G G G Em

And if you re low -ooh You re not alo - one
