[Verse 1]

Fmaj7

Tom was born in 1942

With eyes of blue

C C* C C* C

And the doctors said that his birth was far too fast

Fmaj7

His heart stopped twice

But yet he survived

As he took his first breathe

C C* C C* C

His mother took her last

Fmaj7

And his father knew that he wasn't to blame

C C* C C* C

But he never quite looked at Tom the same after that

F

And he rarely spoke about her

G

But when he did

C C* C C* C

He said your mother used to say this

[Hook]

Fmaj7

When the skies are looking bad my dear

And your heart has lost all it's hope

Fmaj7

After dawn there will be sunshine

And all the dust will go

C

Skies will clear my darling

C

I'll wake up with the one I love the most

Fmaj7

G*

And in the morning, I'll make you up

C C* C C* C

some tea and toast

[Verse 2]

Fmaj7

When they met through a friend

Who introduced them

C C* C C* C

The first thing Tom said was would you like to dance?

Fmaj7

They moved with each other and when the music got slower

C C* C C* C

He said don't let go of my hand

Fmaj7

He said it's only polite if I ask you tonight

C C* C C* C

Would it be alright, if I could walk you home?

Fmaj7

That night he told her of his birth

And said when it hurt

G

C C* C C* C

He thought about what his mother said about tea and toast

Fmaj7

Two quick years went by

G*

They were side by side

Fmaj7

G*

And without a plan, they conceived a little child

Fmaj7

He said women I love you and this you know

G*

But I only have enough for our food and clothes

Amin

But I love you and this baby

Until the day that I die

Fmaj7

She said weâ€™ll take care of this little life

G*

And weâ€™ll fall in love with her baby blue eyes

Amin

And weâ€™ll be alright from some advice that I know

Fmaj7

She said I never got to meet her

G*

C C* C C* C

But if I did, Iâ€™m sure your mother would have said this

[Hook]

Fmaj7

When the skies are looking bad my dear

And your heart has lost all itâ€™s hope

Fmaj7

After dawn there will be sunshine

And all the dust will go

C

Skies will clear my darling

C

We ll show this baby all the love we know

Fmaj7

G*

And in the morning, Iâ€™ll make you up

C C* C C* C

some tea and toast

[Verse 3]

Fmaj7

Well he took those words and he made them proud

G*

He worked day after day and hour after hour

Amin

So that they could buy a little house on the outside of town

Fmaj7

The little girl grew up and so did they

G*

They said that they loved each other everyday

Amin

And forty years later, that brings us to now

Fmaj7

And as theyâ€™re walking down the street her grip loosens on his hand

G*

He puts his arm around her side as she falls to the ground

G#min

He hears her breathing and that s the only sound

Fmaj7

Her body on the floor attracts a worried crowd

G*

Amin

Tears rolls off his face as he says "don't let go, now".

Fmaj7

And he's sitting by her bed in the hospital

G*

Amin

Their daughter walks in with a family of her own

Fmaj7

She says "dad, I don't know if she can hear you now

G*

Amin

but there's one thing mum would want you to know".

Fmaj7

[Hook]

When the skies are looking bad my dear

And your heart has lost all it's hope

Fmaj7

After dawn there will be sunshine

And all the dust will go

C

Skies will clear my darling

C

Now it s time for you to let go

Fmaj7

G*

And in the morning, I'll make you up

C C* C C* C

With some tea and toast
